

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, millions of people throughout South Carolina and the nation go to and return home from work safely each day while, tragically, thousands of workers across the country die from occupational injuries and disease every year; and

WHEREAS, occupational safety, health, and environmental practitioners work to implement safety advances aimed at eliminating workplace injuries and fatalities; and

WHEREAS, a safe workplace positively impacts employee productivity and satisfaction; and

WHEREAS, preventing illness and injury and integrating effective safety and health programs in the workplace have a positive impact on the economy.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 2 – 8, 2004, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the importance of safety in the workplace.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mark Sanford", is written over a horizontal line.
